Men Out—Many Hotels Importing Bread from Other Cities—Strikebreakers Injured in Riot.

New York, May 3.—There was rioting today in the bakers strike. One strikebreaker was stabbed several times, mauls and hundreds of loaves of bread were tossed from wagons into the street.

Conflicting Statements.

Both sides, employers and strikers, maintained an air of confidence and conflicting statements of the status of Others were bused to the city. The strikers, about 8,000 men, are out on picket lines at nearly all the big bakeries, including those in the larger hotels, are seriously crippled. The employers, on the other hand, insist that they are only temporarily handicapped. Many hotels, about one man in ten really needs to be a baker. The others often know nothing about their work when they start in, and they can learn all that is required of them in a couple of days.

TWO CLUBMEN HURT, VALUABLE HUNTER KILLED	LEAVITT-OWEN MARRIAGE AT LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Series of Mishaps on Meadowbrook Hunt Club's Course.
New York, May 3.—Three persons, two of them clannmen, were injured, and a valuable hunter was killed in a series of accidents today on the Meadowbrook Hunt club's course on Long Branch road.

F. Ambrose Clark, a member of the club, was schooling a hunter over the water in the lake. As he was approaching a jump, his horse shied, and then straightened for the jump. The clubman, who was wearing a collarbone was broken. He was not injured otherwise. Two jumps ahead of him, a second horse and rider, John Hastings. The latter met with a similar accident. He was thrown head when thrown and being rendered unconscious. He was revived and is now recovering from his injuries.

Shortly afterward H. I. Bell, a club member, was thrown when his horse few bruises, but the horse, a valuable animal, was killed by the fall, its neck being broken.
